IN THE MATTER OF:                      Ruben D. Sanchez

CASE NUMBER(S):                      07-O-13599 and 08-O-11153

WAIVER OF VARIANCE BETWEEN NOTICE OF DISCIPLINARY CHARGES AND STIPULATED FACTS AND CULPABILITY

The parties hereby waive any variance between the Notice of Disciplinary Charges ("NDC") filed on December 2, 2008 in Case Nos. 07-O-13599 and 08-O-11153, and the facts and conclusions of law contained in this stipulation.

Additionally, the parties waive the issuance of an amended Notice of Disciplinary Charges relating to the case that is the subject matter of this stipulation.

Respondent admits that the following facts are true and that he is culpable of violations of the specified statutes and/or Rules of Professional Conduct.

FACTS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW IN CASE NO. 07-O-13599

FACTS

1. On October 16, 2001, a Felony Complaint was filed against Rodolfo Barranco ("Rodolfo") in the Superior Court of California, County of Riverside ("Superior Court"), titled People v. Rodolfo Barranco, Case No. INF038735 ("People v. Barranco").

2. On March 22, 2002, Rodolfo entered into a plea agreement in People v. Barranco.

3. On March 26, 2002, Rodolfo was placed on summary probation for 36 months in People v. Barranco, which included, but was not limited to, the following terms and conditions of probation: enrolling and completing a 52-week domestic violence/batterers program ("DV Program"); and completing 30-hours of community service.

4. Rodolfo failed to complete the DV Program or the community service.

5. In March of 2003, Rodolfo and his spouse, Giana Barranco ("Giana"), moved to Utah, where they presently reside.

6. On June 13, 2007, Rodolfo went to Respondent's office located at 45902 Oasis Street, Suite A, Indio, California, 92201 (the "Oasis address"), which was also his official State Bar membership records address, to discuss retaining Respondent to represent Rodolfo regarding People v. Barranco. Rodolfo met with Respondent's assistant, Alfred Chavez ("Chavez"). Chavez told Rodolfo that Respondent would represent Rodolfo regarding his violation of the terms and conditions of probation ("Violation of Probation") in People v. Barranco for $1,000. Chavez did not obtain authorization from Respondent prior to informing Rodolfo that Respondent would represent Rodolfo; and/or charge Rodolfo $1,000 to represent him. Rodolfo paid Chavez $1,000 in advanced attorney fees and costs.

7. Chavez has never been admitted to the practice of law in the State of California or a member of the State Bar of California.

8. On June 14, 2007, Respondent and Rodolfo appeared for a Violation of Probation hearing in People v. Barranco. The Superior Court continued the Violation of Probation hearing until July 26, 2007. Respondent received notice of the continued hearing.

9. After the hearing on June 14, 2007, Respondent told Rodolfo to bring Giana, Giana's father (who resided at the time in Colorado), and Giana's mother (who resided at the time in Indio, California) to the hearing scheduled for July 26, 2007.

10. Between June 14, 2007 and June 21, 2007, Rodolfo and/or Giana called Respondent's office and spoke with Respondent on approximately three or four occasions to discuss People v. Barranco. Respondent told Rodolfo and/or Giana that:

(a) they and Giana's parents needed to appear for the Violation of Probation hearing on July 26, 2007; (b) they needed to bring letters of reference for Rodolfo; (c) they needed to put together a package of information to demonstrate that Rodolfo was gainfully employed and it would cause a hardship to his family if he was incarcerated in California; and (d) they needed to locate an agency that would monitor the house arrest of Rodolfo in Utah.

11. Between June 21, 2007 and July 25, 2007, Rodolfo and/or Giana called Respondent's office at the telephone number Respondent had given them approximately 10 to 12 times to obtain a status report on People v. Barranco. No one answered the telephone, and so they left messages for Respondent on Respondent's voice message system with their telephone numbers requesting that Respondent call them and provide a status report. Respondent received the messages.

12. Between June 21, 2007 and July 25, 2007, Chavez called Rodolfo and/or Giana once in response to the messages that Rodolfo and/or Giana had left for Respondent. Chavez told Rodolfo and/or Giana that Chavez would have Respondent call Rodolfo and provide a status report on People v. Barranco. Respondent received the message from Chavez.

13. Between June 21, 2007 and July 25, 2007, Respondent did not provide a status report to Rodolfo and/or Giana, or otherwise communicated with Rodolfo or Giana.

14. On July 25, 2007, Rodolfo and Giana, who had driven in from Utah for the hearing in People v. Barranco, went to the Oasis address. They were told by the tenants of the office that Respondent had vacated the Oasis address and left no forwarding address.

15. Respondent never informed Rodolfo and/or Giana that he was vacating the Oasis address or provided Rodolfo with his new office address.

16. On July 25, 2007, Rodolfo and/or Giana called Respondent at the telephone number that Respondent had given them approximately 2 to 4 times to discuss the hearing in People v. Barranco scheduled for July 26, 2007. No one answered the telephone, and so they left messages for Respondent on Respondent's voice message system with their telephone numbers requesting that Respondent call them and provide a status report. Respondent received the messages.

17. On July 25, 2007, Respondent did not call Rodolfo or Giana, or otherwise communicated with Rodolfo or Giana.

18. On July 26, 2007, Rodolfo and/or Giana called Respondent at the telephone number that Respondent had given them prior to the hearing in People v. Barranco. No one answered the telephone, and so they left messages for Respondent on Respondent's voice message system with their telephone numbers requesting that Respondent call them and provide a status report. Respondent received the messages.

19. On July 26, 2007, Respondent did not call Rodolfo or Giana, or otherwise communicated with Rodolfo or Giana prior to the hearing.

20. On July 26, 2007, Respondent failed to appear for the Violation of Probation hearing in People v. Barranco. Rodolfo appeared and the Superior Court relieved Respondent as the attorney of record for Rodolfo. The Court continued the Violation of Probation hearing until August 16, 2007.

21. On July 26, 2007, Rodolfo and/or Gina called Respondent at the telephone number that Respondent had given them after the hearing in People v. Barranco. No one answered the telephone, and so they left messages for Respondent on Respondent's voice message system with their telephone numbers requesting that Respondent call them, and refund their unearned advanced attorney fees and costs. Respondent received the messages.

22. Respondent did not call Rodolfo and/or Giana, communicated with Rodolfo and/or Giana, or refund their unearned advanced attorney fees and costs.

23. Respondent provided no legal services of value to Rodolfo. Respondent did not earn any of the advanced attorney fees and costs paid by Rodolfo. At no time did Respondent refund any of the $1,000 paid by Rodolfo and Giana.

24. At no time did Respondent inform Rodolfo and/or Giana that he was withdrawing from employment in Rodolfo case, nor did Respondent take any steps to avoid reasonably foreseeable prejudice to Rodolfo.

25. On July 25, 2008, Respondent changed his official State Bar membership records address from the Oasis address to 48-255 Monroe Street #67, Indio, California 92201 (the "Monroe address").

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

26. By permitting Chavez to determine whether or not Respondent would accept a client and setting the amount of advanced attorney fees and costs to be paid by the client for the representation without any authorization from Respondent, Respondent willfully aided a person or entity in the unauthorized practice of law, in violation of Rules of Professional Conduct, rule 1-300(A).

27. By failing to appear for the hearing on or about July 26, 2007, Respondent intentionally, recklessly, or repeatedly failed to perform legal services with competence, in violation of Rules of Professional Conduct, rule 3-110(A).

28. By failing to respond to the messages left by Rodolfo and/or Giana to provide a status report or communicate with them between on or about June 21, 2007 and on or about July 26, 2007, Respondent willfully failed to respond promptly to reasonable status inquiries of a client, in violation of Business and Professions Code section 6068(m).

29. By not refunding the $1,000 in advanced attorney fees and costs to Rodolfo and Giana, Respondent willfully failed to refund unearned fees, in violation of Rules of Professional Conduct, rule 3-700(D)(2).

30. By failing to: provide any legal services of value to Rodolfo; inform Rodolfo and/or Giana that he was vacating the Oasis address; and inform Rodolfo and/or Giana of Respondent's new office address, Respondent willfully failed, upon termination of employment, to take reasonable steps to avoid reasonably foreseeable prejudice to his client, in violation of Rules of Professional Conduct, rule 3-700(A)(2).

31. By failing to update his official State Bar membership records address from the Oasis address between on or before July 25, 2007 and on or about July 25, 2008, Respondent willfully failed to comply with the requirements of section 6002.1, which requires a member of the State Bar to maintain on the official membership records of the State Bar, the member's current office address and telephone number or, if no office is maintained, the address to be used for State Bar purposes, in violation of Business and Professions Code section 6068(j).

FACTS

32. On June 16, 2005, Pilar P. Southard ("Southard") went to Respondent's office located at 45902 Oasis Street, Suite A, Indio, California, 92201 (the "Oasis address"), which was also his official State Bar membership records address, to discuss retaining Respondent to represent her son, Samuel Prieto Horn ("Horn"), in an appeal from a criminal proceeding in the Superior Court of California, County of San Diego ("Superior Court"), titled People v. Samuel P. Horn, Case No. SCD 184821 ("People v. Horn"). Southard met with Respondent's assistant, Henry Ramirez ("Ramirez"). Ramirez told Southard that Respondent would represent Horn regarding the appeal for $10,000, and prepared a retainer agreement for Southard to sign. Ramirez did not obtain authorization from Respondent prior to informing Southard that Respondent: would represent Horn; and/or charge Southard $10,000 to represent Horn.

33. Chavez has never been admitted to the practice of law in the State of California or a member of the State Bar of California.

34. On June 16, 2005, Southard paid Respondent $1,500 in cash for advanced attorney fees and costs. Respondent received the $1,500.

35. On June 17, 2005, Southard paid Respondent $3,500 in advanced attorney fees and costs. Respondent received the $3,500.

36. On August 17, 2005, Respondent filed a "Notice of Appeal" of People v. Horn with the Court of Appeal, Case No. D046984 (the "Horn Appeal"). The notice listed the Oasis address as Respondent's address for the Horn Appeal.

37. On August 17, 2005, Respondent mailed a letter to Southard that stated that Respondent had filed a Notice of Appeal and enclosed a copy of the notice of appeal. The letter further stated that Respondent was

“waiting for the Court of Appeals to order a copy of the transcript so that we may began [sic] preparing the appeal. I need the address for your son in order to send him a copy and keep him aware that his case is progressing and we have not forgotten him.”

Southard received the letter.

38. On September 9, 2005, Southard mailed a letter to Ramirez that stated that Southard had been unable to communicate with Respondent or anyone from his office, and requested Respondent's new telephone number so that she could obtain a status report. The letter also provided Horn's address and telephone number. Respondent received the letter.

39. On September 26, 2005, Southard paid Respondent $1,500 in advanced attorney fees and costs. Respondent received the $1,500.

40. Between October of 2005 and 2007, Southard repeatedly called Respondent's office to obtain a status report on the Horn Appeal. No one answered the telephone, and so she left messages on Respondent's voice message system requesting that Respondent call her or Horn to discuss the appeal. Respondent received the messages. Respondent did not call Horn or Southard, or otherwise communicated with Horn or Southard.

41. On November 7, 2005, Southard paid Respondent $2,000 in advanced attorney fees and costs. Respondent received the $2,000.

42. On November 25, 2005, Southard paid Respondent $1,500 in advanced attorney fees and costs. Respondent received the $1,500. Altogether, Southard paid Respondent $10,000 in advanced attorney fees and costs.

43. On April 25, 2006, the Court of Appeal dismissed the Horn Appeal for failure to file the Opening Brief.

44. In November of 2007, Southard – who resides near San Diego, California – drove to the Oasis address to determine why Respondent had failed to communicate with Horn and her. Southard determined that Respondent had vacated the Oasis address when she arrived at the Oasis address.

45. Respondent never informed Horn or Southard that he was vacating the Oasis address or provided them with his new office address.

46. Respondent provided no legal services of value to Horn. Respondent did not earn any of the advanced attorney fees and costs paid by Southard. At no time did Respondent refund any of the $10,000 paid by Southard.

47. At no time that Respondent inform Horn and/or Southard that he was withdrawing from employment in the Horn Appeal, nor did Respondent take any steps to avoid reasonably foreseeable prejudice to Horn.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

48. By permitting Ramirez to determine whether or not Respondent would accept a client and setting the amount of advanced attorney fees and costs to be paid by the client for the representation without any prior authorization from Respondent, Respondent willfully aided a person or entity in the unauthorized practice of law, in violation of Rules of Professional Conduct, rule 1-300(A).

49. By failing to file the Opening Brief, Respondent intentionally, recklessly, or repeatedly failed to perform legal services with competence, in violation of Rules of Professional Conduct, rule 3-110(A).

51. By not refunding the $10,000 in advanced attorney fees and costs to Southard, Respondent willfully failed to refund unearned fees, in violation of Rules of Professional Conduct, rule 3-700(D)(2).

52. By failing to: provide any legal services of value to Horn; inform Horn and/or Southard that he was vacating the Oasis address; and inform Horn and/or Southard of Respondent's new office address, Respondent willfully failed, upon termination of employment, to take reasonable steps to avoid reasonably foreseeable prejudice to his client, , in violation of Rules of Professional Conduct, rule 3-700(A)(2).
